

PERSON SPECIFICATION
Senior Lecturer (Associate Professor) in Applied Microeconomics
Vacancy Ref: A2462

Criteria	Senior Lecturer Essential/ Desirable	Application/ Interview
PhD in Economics, or a cognate discipline, from a reputable University.	Essential	Application
Previous university lecturing/teaching experience; ability to teach across a variety of programmes, with evidence of teaching excellence, and successfully perform pastoral functions.	Essential	Application/ Interview
An international research profile in Development Economics, and/or Labour Economics, and/or Public Economics as attested by quality of publications in top and high quality international journals and other evidence of esteem indicators (e.g. citations, track-record of external funding, engagement with international research networks, invitations to address conferences).	Essential	Application/ Interview
Record of high-quality research, with publications in highly-rated journals	Essential	Application
The ability to make a significant strategic contribution to the research and teaching agenda of the Department and the Management School	Desirable	Application/ Interview
Experience of and willingness to take on administrative duties; willingness to assume senior level responsibilities at School and University level	Desirable	Application/ Interview

- Application Form – assessed against the application form, curriculum vitae and letter of support.
- Interview – assessed during the interview process by competency based interview questions, presentation, meetings, etc.