Job Title:	Lecturer in Social Statistics and Sociology	Grade: Lecturer 7/8
Department/College:	Department of Sociology
Directly responsible to:	Head of Department
Supervisory responsibility for: N/A
Other contacts

Contacts:

Internal: Colleagues and students in the Department and in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, together with colleagues in other faculties, providers of student support services, the library, ISS, central administration and other relevant university actors.

External: policy and professional bodies, local, UK and international government organisations, academic and research networks, relevant research funding bodies and councils.

Major Duties:

1. Contribute to the Centre for Child and Family Justice Research by bringing quantitative expertise to the study of issues relating to children and families.
2. Play a major role in a programme of interdisciplinary quantitative research funded by the Nuffield Foundation, with a specific focus on family justice.
3. Build on an established publication profile by leading or contributing to the publication of high quality journal papers and technical reports.
4. Contribute to/lead grant applications to a range of external funders, commensurate with level of seniority and experience
5. Contribute/lead to the development and delivery of statistics teaching/other core teaching in the Department and contribute to the Faculty's strategy regarding support for data intensive research across departments
6. Work across disciplinary boundaries between sociology, statistics, computing and health
7. Attend and present papers at a range of national/international research conferences, public policy and public engagement events
8. Work flexibly to meet funding deadlines and publication schedules
9. Undertake all required standard induction requirements and any further training as identified through the PDR and mentoring process
10. Contribute to/play a leadership role in the development of statistics capability in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences
11. Contribute to the activity/lead activity within the Data Science Institute's Society theme
12. Undertake other duties as required by the Head of Department or Dean of Faculty.

Click here to enter text.