Job Title: Lecturer in Workplace Health and Well Being

Department/College:
- Health Research

Present Grade:
- 7

Directly responsible to:
- Head of Division

Supervisory responsibility for:
- N/A

Other contacts

Internal:
- Divisional and Faculty of Health and Medicine colleagues and students, together with colleagues in the University.

External:
- Employees and employee representatives,
- Employers, business organisations, professional bodies,
- local and national government organisations,
- research funding bodies and councils,
- academic and research networks

---

- Contribute to the national and international research reputation of the Centre for Organizational Health and Well Being and the Division of Health, more widely.
- Participate in research teams and academic initiatives in an agreed research area.
- Develop a research profile leading to publications in leading international peer-reviewed academic journals and to other appropriate forms of research output.
- Identify opportunities and contribute to the securing of funds for new research contracts and grants.
- Contribute to existing postgraduate and other teaching in the Division through e-learning, lecturing, tutorials and assessment.
- Contribute to development of revisions to existing courses or new courses in terms of design, content, structure, forms of delivery, method of assessment.
- Supervise postgraduate dissertation projects and PhD students.
- Provide sabbatical cover where necessary.
- To take responsibility for various administrative responsibilities as requested by the Head of Division
- Undertake other academic duties as required by Head of Division, Dean of the Faculty or nominated representative.