

JOB DESCRIPTION
Developer, ISS – Corporate Information Systems
Vacancy Ref: A2604

Job Title: Developer	Present Grade: 7P
Department/College: ISS
Directly responsible to: CIS Team Leader or nominee
Supervisory responsibility for: Variable according to assignment
Other contacts Internal: Administration Directorates Members of other teams in ISS Departmental IT Representatives External: Application Technical Groups Software Suppliers External Project Teams
Major Duties: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Supporting a product-based approach to applications development. 2. Maintaining the support and development of existing CIS Student systems. 3. To assist in the day to day project management of software development projects where appropriate 4. To provide technical support for the local University CIS project teams for the purpose of installing and operating corporate information systems. Included in this are associated project planning and user training responsibilities. 5. To assist and support users in making effective use of corporate information systems through personalised 1 to 1 training, assisting with setting up internal training courses and personal technical support. 6. Making or organising operating changes as necessary and subsequently to assist client sections in extending these new facilities for distributed use over the campus network. 7. To accept local responsibility for the quality and functional performance of selected business software. 8. To work and liaise with external bodies on the specification, evaluation and acceptance of CIS software 9. To attend and report to internal and external meetings as directed. 10. To perform such other duties, appropriate to the grade, as may be directed by the Director of Information Systems Services or nominated representative 	