Other contacts

Internal:
- Other staff in the Centre for Corpus Approaches to Social Science, the Department of Linguistics and English Language; Faculty and central administration

External:
- The Aziz Foundation; professional bodies, policy makers and other government bodies; non-governmental organisations; local community organisations and educators; academic and research networks; general public.

Major Duties:

1. Undertake research to meet the specified aims of the grant from The Aziz Foundation. In particular, to conduct research on the representations of Islam in the British press at local and national levels as well as over time.

2. To support the Centre’s projects and contribute expertise in corpus-based (critical) discourse analysis.

3. To participate in various networks; tasks to include preparation and presentation of talks, writing of reports and active dissemination of findings to stakeholders.

4. Write and/or contribute to academic articles (of suitable quality to be returned in the Research Excellence Framework) and contribute to books and other publications arising out of the Centre.

5. Deliver research seminars and disseminate research findings as appropriate.

6. Engage in the training activities of the Centre.

7. Undertake outreach work to the public and non-academic users of research, especially The Aziz Foundation and media outlets.

8. Contribute to the national and international research reputation of the Centre, the Department and the University more widely.

9. Work within the strategic direction of the University as a whole and the University’s code of ethics and practice guidelines.
