

PERSON SPECIFICATION
Lecturer in Human Rights Law (Teaching & Scholarship)
Vacancy Ref: A2696

Criteria	Grade 8	Grade 7	Tested By*
A PhD in Law or equivalent experience (grade 7 post only – award within 12 months.) Please give details of your PhD stating awarding institution, date of award, discipline/specialism.	Desirable	Desirable	Application Form
Experience of leading curriculum development in Law, either at programme or module level.	Essential	Desirable	Supporting Statement/ Interview
High-quality teaching and supervision of undergraduates and postgraduates in Human Rights Law the ability to teach at least one other core.	Essential	Desirable	Supporting Statement/ Interview
A clear commitment to scholarship in your chosen field of study, with plans to engage in the development of knowledge, and demonstrable plans to apply this to your teaching.	Essential	Essential	Supporting Statement / Interview
Authorship of teaching material in Law that are recognised externally as effective contributions in their field.	Desirable	Desirable	Supporting Statement/ Interview
Innovation in teaching or supporting learning, including in one's own teaching.	Essential	Desirable	Supporting Statement/ Interview
Good communication skills. In particular, the ability to communicate clearly to a diverse range of groups.	Essential	Essential	Interview/ Presentation
Willingness and ability to participate in general administration of the School and ability to take on administrative tasks commensurate with the candidate's seniority and level of professional development	Essential	Essential	Interview

- Application Form – assessed against the application form and curriculum vitae. Evidence will be “scored” as part of the shortlisting process.
- Supporting Statement – assessed against additional information provided by the candidate. Evidence will be “scored” as part of the shortlisting process.
- Interview – assessed during the interview process by either competency based interview questions, tests, presentation etc.