

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Research Associate	Present Grade:	6P
Department/College:	Department of Psychology
Directly responsible to:	Dr Nicola Power
Supervisory responsibility for:	None
Other contacts
Internal:
Prof Mark Levine, Dr Richard Philpot and all academic, research and support staff colleagues, and research students/volunteers in the Department of Psychology; colleagues across departments of the University and central administration.
External:
Research participants; representatives of the funders; stakeholders from partner institutions; and external agencies.
Major Duties:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. To support a range of studies testing key questions from “The Psychology of Interoperability Training: Building Better Multi-Agency Counter-Terrorism Training” project</li> <li>2. To assist in the day-to-day running of the Project – including cooperation and collaboration with the research team, Steering Group members and stakeholders.</li> <li>3. To assist in participant recruitment for the Project, maintaining confidential participant records in accordance with University and Funder guidelines. You will manage confidential information provided by participants, deal with ethical and administrative issues relating to the Project.</li> <li>4. To undertake data collection, working to established Department protocols, including safeguarding policies; and contribute to data analysis.</li> <li>5. To support the dissemination of the research, including contribution to research publications and conference presentations.</li> <li>6. To contribute to project reports and presentations to stakeholders where appropriate</li> <li>7. To contribute to the Project and Department’s Impact Agenda, by assisting in arranging events for academic and non-academic partners such as practitioner reports and the end-of-project workshop.</li> <li>8. To identify and engage in personal development opportunities to support your career development, including developing your personal research agenda, as provided by the Department, by the University, or by external bodies.</li> <li>9. You may also be required to carry out any other duties, commensurate with the grade of the post, as directed by your line manager or their nominee.</li> </ol>			